Puratos Innovation Centers
Mumbai || New Delhi

With a global team of more than 463 technical advisors, our network of 77 Innovation Centers (2 Innovation Centers in India), are committed to supporting customers on both a local and regional level, providing them with access to the very latest industry equipment, expertise and training, as well as in-depth research into international trends.

We limit our focus to three core disciplines - bakery, patisserie and chocolate-making- but offer our services to all our customers, no matter how big or small.

From artisans to industrial manufacturers, and from quick-service restaurants to large supermarkets, each and every one of our customers are welcome.

At our Innovation Centers, we concentrate on providing three main services:
Product development || Category management || Product profiling
